2026 NEVADA COUNTY FELONY BAIL SCHEDULE

The following is the presumptive felony bail schedule for Nevada County as required by Penal Code Section 1269b(c). Unless bail has been set by the magistrate, in an arrest warrant or otherwise, the presumptive bail schedule shall be applied.

If in the opinion of the arresting or booking officer the presumptive bail appears to be, under the circumstances of any particular case, excessively high or excessively low a modification of the presumptive bail schedule can be obtained upon a showing of good cause to a magistrate. Any attempt to obtain such a modification of bail by law enforcement or corrections staff should be made through the Office of the District Attorney.

If a detainee is booked for multiple offenses and enhancements occurring on the same date, bail will be limited to double the amount for the offense carrying the highest bail. If the detainee is booked for offenses occurring on separate dates, the bail shall be cumulative for each offense date.

If a detainee is booked for a felony offense not set forth in the bail schedule, the bail shall be $10,000. This amount shall be subject to the arresting or booking officer's right to obtain a modified bail amount telephonically from a magistrate upon a showing of good cause as previously set forth.

Certain bail enhancements may apply for the commission of specific offenses. The bail enhancements set are attached hereto. If not specifically set forth, the detainee is subject to a $15,000 enhancement.

If the detainee has one prior serious or violent felony conviction (strike) his/her bail will be enhanced by $25,000.

If the detainee has two or more serious or violent felony convictions (strikes) his/her bail will be enhanced by $150,000.

A violent felony is defined in Penal Code Section 667.5(c)(1) through (23).

A serious felony is defined in Penal Code Section 1192.7(c)(1) through (42).
