Counter Arraignment Criteria

- Attorneys eligible to use these arraignment procedures must be members in good standing of the State Bar of California, whose privilege of using these arraignment procedures has not been revoked by order of the presiding Judge for failure to comply with these criteria. The attorney shall provide their California State Bar number on the counter arraignment form.
- The following cases are excluded for the counter arraignment process:
 - All felonies
 - Cases where the defendant is in custody
 - Cases where a warrant has been issued
 - Domestic violence cases (FC§6211 and PC§273.6)
 - Cases involving sex related offenses, including PC§243.4
 - Cases involving abuse, neglect or abandonment of a child (PC§273a, PC§273d, PC§273.5 and PC§273.6)
 - Second and subsequent offenses under VC§23152 and VC§23153
- The counter arraignment must be received two court days before the arraignment date in order to avoid the issuance of a warrant, filing of failure to appear charges and the forfeiture of bail.
- Any bail posted shall remain in full force and effect until the date of arraignment to the next hearing.
