

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF NEVADA

In the Matter of:

a Minor.

Case No. _____
Notice and Acknowledgment of Rights, Liabilities,
and Order to Appear for Financial Evaluation

ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS

The minor is hereby advised that he/she has the following constitutional rights in the above-entitled action:

1. The right to a hearing by the court on the issues raised by the petition, any petition subsequent and/or supplemental petition;
2. The right to assert the privilege against self-incrimination, which is the right to remain silent and to say nothing which potentially incriminates the minor;
3. The right to confront and cross-examine any witness called to testify against the minor;
4. The right to use the process of the court to compel the attendance of witnesses on the minor's behalf.

NOTICE OF LIABILITY

If a minor is adjudged a ward of the court, in addition to any other orders:

1. The court may levy a fine against the minor up to the amount that could be imposed on an adult for the same offense if the court finds the minor has the financial ability to pay the fine;
2. The court shall order the minor to pay a restitution fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 (felony) or not more than $100 (misdemeanor) (Welfare and Institutions Code §730.6(b)(1);
3. The court shall impose a restitution order designed to fully reimburse any victim(s) for all determined economic losses incurred as a result of the minor's conduct (W&I §730.6(h).

The parent(s) or guardian(s) may have liability if the minor is adjudged a ward of the court to pay any restitution up to the limits provided in Sections 1714.1 ($25,000) and 1714.3 ($30,000) of the Civil Code. Further, a parent or guardian who has joint or sole legal and physical custody and control of the minor shall be presumed jointly and severally liable with the minor for the amount of restitution, fines, and penalty assessments ordered against the minor subject to the $25,000 and $30,000 limitations of Civil Code Sections 1714.1 and 1714.3, subject to the court's consideration of the parent's or guardian's ability to pay.

The father, mother, spouse, or other person liable for the support of the minor are liable for the reasonable costs of support of the minor when the minor is placed, or detained in, or committed to, any institution or other place pursuant to § 625 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or pursuant to an order of the Juvenile Court, the cost of legal services rendered to the minor pursuant to W & I Code §903.1, and the costs of probation supervision pursuant to W & I Code §903.2. This liability, in the case of multiple individuals who may be responsible, shall be joint and several.

ORDER TO APPEAR

All persons liable for the support of the minor, upon written request by the County Financial Evaluation Officer, shall appear at the date, time and location specified and provide such information and documentation as may be needed to evaluate the person's ability to pay the costs of support, legal services and probation supervision. If the person or persons fail to appear as requested they may be ordered to pay the full amount of the costs upon the recommendation of the county financial evaluation officer.

The undersigned acknowledges that he/she has been advised of his/her rights, liabilities and order to appear for financial evaluation in the above matter.
