About the Presenters

Kathy Lindsay

Kathy Lindsay has been practicing law since 2011. She began an internship at the Nevada County Public Law Center (aka Self-Help Center) while studying for the Bar, enjoyed the work, and especially the people whom she worked with. Serving the public and learning the ropes of the Courthouse went hand in hand. Now fourteen years later, she has developed a practice in Family law, Dependency and Probate. She has been involved in the preparation of dozens of guardianship filings through her work at the Self-Help Center and in her professional practice. Kathy is looking forward to sharing the benefit of her knowledge with you at the seminar.

Larry Montgomery

Larry Montgomery began practicing law in 1985 in San Diego, then moved to Nevada County in March 1988, where he has practiced law ever since. In 1989 and then again in 1995, Mr. Montgomery was President of the Nevada County Bar Association. Beginning in 1994 through 2006, Mr. Montgomery sat regularly as a Judge Pro Tem in the Family Law, Criminal, Traffic, and Smalls Claims departments of the Nevada County Superior Court. In the late 1990s, Mr. Montgomery was the District 1 representative to the Executive Committee of the State Bar of California. Mr. Montgomery's areas of practice are Family Law, Criminal and Juvenile Law, and Juvenile Dependency.
