These rules may be amended or repealed and new rules may be added, by majority vote of the judges. Rules and subdivision headings do not in any manner affect the scope, meaning or intent of any of the provisions of these rules.

(Amended July 1, 2016.)

RULE 1.04 DEFINITIONS OF WORDS USED IN THESE RULES

- A. The definitions set forth in the rules heretofore or hereafter adopted by the Judicial Council of the State of California for the Superior Courts shall apply with equal force, and for all purposes, to these “Local Rules”, unless the context or subject matter herein otherwise requires.
- B. The word “Court” shall mean the unified Superior Court of the State of California, County of Nevada, and shall include and apply to all branches of the court and to any judge or commissioner who is a duly appointed or elected member of this court. “Court” shall also apply to any judge or commissioner who shall have been assigned by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council of the State of California to serve, and is serving, as a judge of this court, including any retired

RULE 1.06 SUBMISSION OF PLEADINGS FOR FILING

- A. Electronic filing (eFiling) is mandatory in the areas listed in Section 1 below. The submission of documents through electronic filing is permitted in all case types. Documents filed via electronic submission are subject to all of the conditions set forth in Code of Civil Procedure Section 1010.6(b) and any requirements set forth in California Rules of Court, Rule 2.250 et seq. (Trial Court Rules, Division 3, Chapter 2). The procedure for submitting documents electronically is as follows:

1. Use of eFiling is mandatory effective July 1, 2022. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 1010.6(d)(4) and California Rules of Court, Rule 2.253(b)(1), self-represented parties are exempt from any mandatory electronic filing requirements, but are encouraged to electronically file documents. This Section may be waived on a case-by-case basis upon a judicial finding of good cause.
2. No direct electronic transmission (such as email or fax) to the court of any document for filing is allowed. Electronic filing of documents must be done through (1) an authorized Electronic Filing Service Provider, (2) via portal accounts or (3) via system integration. The court may expand the list of approved Electronic Filing Service Providers and/or the method of submission via electronic filing at any time by updating the information on the court website.
3. Any document received electronically by the court between 12:00:00 a.m. and 11:59:59 p.m. on any court day must be deemed filed, if accepted, on that court day. Any document that is received electronically on a non-court day must be deemed filed, if accepted, on the next court day. This rule concerns only the method and effective date of filing. Any document that is electronically filed must still satisfy all other legal filing deadlines and requirements, including, but not limited to, case specific orders of the court and all applicable service of process requirements.

4. By filing a document electronically, the party or user agrees to accept electronic service [eService], from the court, at the electronic service address provided. A user may consent to accept electronic service [eService] from the court through their electronic filing service provider, or by filing a consent form. This agreement applies to all future correspondence or notices from the court to the party who is affirming consent to electronic service. Consent is granted by law for the particular case in which electronic filing was used.
5. Each pleading submitted for filing must include, with the required contact information at the top of the first page, a current email address for the attorney or self-represented party on whose behalf the pleading is submitted. Each form submitted for filing must also include a current email address for the attorney or self-represented party on whose behalf the form is submitted, regardless of any “optional” reference that may be printed on the form. Failure to provide a current email address and statement of intent to appear remotely or in person may result in rejection of the pleading and/or continuance of the hearing.
6. There may be a fee charged by the Electronic Filing Service Provider (EFSP) or Electronic Filing Manager (EFM). These fees are waived for government entities and any litigant who has received a fee waiver. There are no fees for filings in criminal cases. Please contact the specific providers directly for further information.
7. Confidential or sealed records must be electronically filed through encrypted methods to ensure that the documents are not improperly disclosed. Redaction of confidential and personal information is the sole responsibility of counsel and related parties. The clerk will not review documents for compliance.
8. EFiled documents must be submitted in PDF (Portable Document Format), text-searchable format, and viewable on any standard PDF Viewer.
 - i. All documents that exceed ten (10) pages and contain multiple exhibits/sections must be bookmarked. Bookmark titles shall match the corresponding section/exhibit. The use of hyperlinks is strongly encouraged. For instructions on bookmarking, visit the court website.
 - ii. For original documents required to be filed on paper, an electronic courtesy copy must be submitted. The original must be filed within ten (10) court days pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 2.252. For a current list of original documents required, visit the court website.
 - iii. Regardless of the time of electronic submission, a printed courtesy copy (along with proof of electronic submission) is required for submissions where the total pages submitted – including notice, points and authorities, declarations, judicial notice requests, separate statements, exhibits, appendices, table of contents, etc. – exceed fifty (50) pages. The printed courtesy copy shall be provided the same day the electronic copy is submitted.

9. Certain documents cannot be electronically filed with the court, and must be submitted in paper format. For a current list of exceptions to electronic filing, visit the court website Electronic Filing page.
 10. Parties/Counsel who are granted a voluntary remote appearance for a hearing, and who want to submit documents for the hearing, must submit any and all documents, including exhibits, no later than 3:00 p.m. two (2) court days prior to the scheduled court hearing to the clerk's office. Any documents submitted to the court in advance of the court hearing must also be served on the opposing parties so that they will be received two (2) court days prior to the court hearing. The Court may issue an order requiring any such documents be submitted to the court and provided to opposing parties on a date earlier than what is required herein.
- B. The clerk will endorse the original and (1) copy submitted at the same time as the original and return them if a self-addressed, stamped envelope is provided. Any document to be conformed which is submitted without an addressed envelope with sufficient postage will be deposited into a drop box maintained at the clerk's office for the branch and department (criminal or civil) in which the document was filed. Such documents may be purged and destroyed thirty (30) days after filing. Where eFiling is not mandated, pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 2.300 et seq. the court accepts documents for fax filing only through a fax filing agency as provided for in California Rules of Court, Rule 2.303. The court does not accept direct fax filing under California Rules of Court, Rule 2.304. Documents filed by a fax filing agency must be filed only in the court where the proceeding is venued, e.g., either the Nevada City Branch or the Truckee Branch.

The use of any form attached to these rules is permissive, unless these rules require or indicate the use of the form is mandatory. Notwithstanding, if the Judicial Council later adopts a form for mandatory use that would serve the same purpose as a local mandatory form, then the Judicial Council form shall be used instead of the local form.

 - 2. A scheduled vacation that involves prepaid commitments, or cannot be otherwise conveniently rescheduled;

- A. Date of conference. Except for short cause cases, a case management conference shall be scheduled and held in all cases approximately 120 days after the filing of the complaint. The court sets and files a notice of case management conference at the time the complaint is filed. Plaintiff shall serve the notice of case management conference, the case management information sheet with attached blank copy of the case management statement, and the court's alternate dispute resolution sheet and attached stipulation form at the time the complaint is served. The parties may thereafter stipulate in writing to and the Court may order that the conference be set at an earlier date. At any time, the Court may schedule a case management conference on its own motion.

- B. Manner of appearance. Parties may appear in person or may appear remotely for case management conferences, as provided by Code of Civil Procedure Section 367.75 and California Rules of Court, Rule 3.672. In the Truckee Branch, all parties wishing to appear in person must provide notice to the court and opposing parties two (2) court days prior to the court hearing. The Court will review files for the case management conference and determine if appearances at the conference are necessary. If it is determined a conference is not necessary, a case management tentative ruling is issued and the parties are advised that an appearance is not required. At the present time, such orders are posted to the court website prior to the scheduled hearing. This policy is subject to change without further notice or amendment of these rules.
- C. Case at issue. The case shall be at issue at the time of the conference absent a showing of extraordinary circumstances.
- D. Counsel/party participation. Counsel for each party and each self-represented party appearing in the action who is required by the case management order described in subdivision (B) shall attend the case management conference pursuant to the terms of the notice and should be familiar with the case and be fully prepared to discuss all matters stated in the case management order. Counsel designated as trial counsel shall personally attend the case management conference. Counsel or a self-represented party who fails to attend the conference and fails to participate effectively in the conference shall be subject to the imposition of sanctions.
- E. Designation of trial counsel. Trial counsel and, except for good cause, backup trial counsel must be specified at the first case management conference. If such trial counsel is not specified or designated trial counsel does not appear, relief from the scheduled trial date may not be obtained based upon the ground that counsel is engaged in trial elsewhere.
- F. Subjects to be considered at case management conference. In any case management conference or review the parties must address, if applicable, and the Court may take appropriate action with respect to, the factors set out in California Rules of Court, Rule 3.724.
- G. Case management orders. In addition to an order setting a schedule for subsequent proceedings and otherwise providing for management of the case, the case management order shall include such provisions as may be appropriate, including those provisions set forth in California Rules of Court, Rules 3.724, 3.727 and 3.728(1) – (13).

- H. Proofs of service. Proofs of service of complaints and cross-complaints must be filed at least fifteen (15) calendar days before the case management conference.
- I. Case management conference statement. At least fifteen (15) calendar days before the scheduled case management conference, each party shall file with the court and serve on all other parties a completed case management conference statement.
- J. Jury Fees. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 631, jury fees shall be paid on or before the date scheduled for the initial case management conference. Failure to timely deposit jury fees results in a statutory waiver of trial by jury.
- K. Remote Appearances. The case management conference calendar is held remotely in Truckee. Parties must notify the court two (2) court days in advance of an intent to appear in person.

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 4.00.9 SHORT CAUSE CASES

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.735(a), a short cause case is a civil case in which the time estimated for trial by all parties or the court is five (5) hours or less. All other civil cases are long cause cases. In order to provide more efficient calendar management, short cause cases are divided into two (2) categories: limited short cause collection cases and all other short cause cases.

- A. Limited short cause collection cases. See California Rules of Court, Rule 3.740.
- B. Other short cause cases. Short cause cases other than limited short cause collection cases shall be assigned a case management conference date. If the parties by stipulation, or the Court on its own motion, have not scheduled a case management conference sooner than 120 days following the filing of the complaint, the case will be called for case management conference in the same fashion as a long cause matter. If the parties stipulate or the Court on its own motion sets a case management conference before 120 days, the Court will conduct a case management conference in the same fashion as a long cause matter. In any event, the Court may, despite the short cause nature of the case, order that the case be subject to a settlement conference, pretrial conference, or alternative dispute resolution. Further, the Court may, upon a review of the case management conference statement, vacate the order for case management conference and set the matter directly for trial on the short cause calendar.

If the parties stipulate to a short cause trial date prior to the case management conference, the parties shall submit their stipulation to the clerk who will then send out a notice of trial. Any scheduled case management conference shall be dropped, absent a court order otherwise. No at issue memoranda are to be filed.

SANCTIONS

The election, along with case management conference statements of each party, must be filed at least fifteen (15) calendar days before the case management conference. See California Rules of Court, Rule 3.812(b).
- B. Stipulation to Arbitrate. Parties may stipulate to arbitration in appropriate cases prior to the case management conference. A written stipulation to arbitrate will be deemed to be without a limit as to the amount of the award unless it expressly states otherwise.
- C. Mandatory Arbitration Under Rule 3.811(a)(2)(3) and (5). Pursuant to California Rule of Court 3.811(a)(2)(3) and (5) the Court may, despite the lack of a stipulation, order that appropriate cases be submitted to judicial arbitration.
- D. Request for Trial. If any party has, within a timely fashion, requested that trial be set following arbitration pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.826 the Court shall preside over any mandatory settlement conference, pretrial and trial dates originally set at the case management conference.
- E. Alternative Dispute Resolution. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 1775.2, the court hereby adopts Title 11.6 of Code of Civil Procedure Sections 1775 et seq. and therefore provides for the submittal of matters to mediation as an alternative to judicial arbitration for cases that are statutorily eligible for judicial arbitration pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 1141.11 or 1141.12. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 1141.11(c), any limited civil case in which a jury trial is requested shall be submitted to arbitration.
- F. Sanctions. The Court may impose sanctions for the willful failure to meaningfully participate in arbitration proceedings, including but not limited to arbitrator's fees, attorney's fees and costs, upon a motion brought by a party or the Court. Willful failure to meaningfully participate in arbitration includes but is not limited to:
 - 1. Non-appearance at the time set for hearing of any person necessary to proceed to a meaningful conclusion. Phone calls to the arbitrator at the time set for hearing shall not constitute an appearance.
 - 2. Failure to offer any evidence or rebuttal.
 - 3. Submission of a motion to continue the arbitration hearing less than ten (10) court days before the scheduled hearing unless good cause is shown.
 - 4. Failure to complete arbitration within the time fixed therefor.

In the event of a failure to meaningfully participate, the arbitrator may present a declaration to the court requesting sanctions against the offending party or attorney. The declaration shall be lodged with the court's arbitration administrator and an order to show cause may be issued and set for hearing.

G. Sanctions in Mediation Conducted in Lieu of Judicial Arbitration. When the parties elect to participate in mediation in lieu of judicial arbitration, the Court may impose sanctions for the willful failure to meaningfully participate in mediation proceedings, including but not limited to mediator's fees, attorney's fees and costs, upon a motion brought by a party or the Court. Willful failure to meaningfully participate in mediation includes but is not limited to:

1. Non-appearance at the time set for hearing of any person necessary to proceed to a meaningful conclusion. Phone calls to the mediator at the time set for mediation shall not constitute an appearance.
2. Requests to continue the mediation less than ten (10) court days before the scheduled mediation unless good cause is shown.

RULE 5.01 EX PARTE ORDERS AND ORDERS SHORTENING TIME

- A. Ex parte applications. For the purposes of this rule, ex parte applications are those requests made for a court order, without formal written notice to the other parties, where a noticed hearing would normally be required, and include applications for orders shortening time.
- B. Presentation. Applications for ex parte orders and proposed temporary orders shall be presented to the judicial officer assigned to the case. Parties will be notified of the date and time of the ex parte hearing, if granted.
- C. Conditions of issuance. Ordinarily, an ex parte order will not be issued unless one of the following conditions exists:
 - 1. Notice was given to the adverse party as required by California Rules of Court, Rules 3.1203 and 3.1204; or it clearly appears in the affidavit or declaration that giving notice would frustrate the purpose of the proposed order; and at least one of the following applies:
 - 2. The applicant or child will suffer immediate and irreparable injury before the adverse party can be heard in opposition;

3. It appears by affidavit or declaration that no significant burden or inconvenience will result to the adverse party or child; or
 4. In the case of a protective order, (excluding domestic violence protective orders), if it clearly appears from the affidavit or declaration that issuance of an order without notice is necessary to prevent the occurrence or recurrence of domestic violence, child abuse, child abduction, or abuse of an elder or dependent adult.
- D. Declaration of notice. An application for an ex parte order or an order shortening time must be accompanied by a written affidavit or declaration informing the judge if the opposing party is represented by an attorney and explaining that notice to the other party was given as required by these rules, the manner and content of the notice given. If notice was not given, the declaration shall state the reason notice has not been given. Such affidavit or declaration is required by a responding party seeking to schedule affirmative relief on a previously set hearing date. FL-303 Declaration Regarding Notice and Service of Request for Temporary Emergency (Ex Parte) Orders may be used for this purpose. This rule applies whether or not the other party has appeared or is represented by an attorney. Ex parte applications concerning discovery must comply with California Rules of Court, Rules 3.1200-3.1207. Ex parte applications concerning appointment of a temporary guardian must comply with California Rules of Court, Rule 7.52.
- E. Declaration re: order shortening time. Prior to requesting an order shortening time, the applicant must meet and confer with the opposing party or parties in an effort to resolve any scheduling issues. If the opposing party has not been contacted or has not agreed, the supporting affidavit or declaration must state the applicant's efforts to resolve the scheduling issue, or why they should be excused, and why the hearing should be set on the proposed date without the consent of the opposing party. As a general rule, an affidavit or declaration in support of an order shortening time must set forth facts showing good cause.
- F. Sufficiency of declarations. An ex parte order shall be issued only if the application is accompanied by an affidavit or declaration adequate to support its issuance under Family Code Section 6300, California Rules of Court, Rule 5.151, and/or Code of Civil Procedure Section 527. If the affidavit or declaration does not contain a sufficient factual basis for a particular order, it will not be granted. The Court shall not permit oral augmentation of affidavits or declarations at the time of the ex parte hearing. The Court may permit written augmentation in its discretion, with due consideration to the avoidance of prejudice to any responding party.
- G. Facts to be contained in applications for specific relief. Applications for specified relief must be supported by the following information:

1. An application for ex parte orders for temporary custody must include, among other things, which party has physical custody, details as to how, when, where, and under what circumstances the party obtained physical care or control of the child(ren), and other facts (not conclusions or statements of belief) showing the best interests of the child(ren).
2. An application for an ex parte order to change custody of any minor child(ren) must be supported by an affidavit or declaration showing by clear, specific allegations that the health and welfare of the child(ren) require the immediate change of custody, and stating why an order shortening time would not be reasonable. The affidavit or declaration must also set forth, in brief, the specifics of the manner in which the child(ren) will be cared for pending hearing. (Family Code Section 3064.)
3. An application for an ex parte protective order excluding either party from the family residence, or the residence of the other, must be supported by an affidavit or declaration showing an assault or threatened assault and emotional or physical harm, as required under Family Code Section 6321, specifying in detail the time and place of any past act or acts of alleged misconduct or harm, and stating why an order shortening time would not be reasonable. At the hearing, the Court may order temporary exclusion from the family residence upon a sufficient showing of an assault or threatened assault and physical or emotional harm.
4. An application for a protective order which additionally contains financial requests (including, but not limited to child support, spousal support, payment of bills, and/or attorney's fees) shall be accompanied by an Income and Expense Declaration completed as provided in Local Rule 5.11(B).
5. For ex parte applications for wage assignments and writs of execution, see Local Rule 5.02.

H. Availability of copies. A party seeking an ex parte order must provide a copy of all papers filed with the court to the other parties at or before 4:00 p.m. on the day that they are filed with the court. This does not require formal service. Formal service will occur after the Request for Order / other ex parte orders are approved by the judicial officer. The copies may be provided electronically, through a parenting app the parties are already using, or in hard copy to the party directly (unless there are restraining orders which prohibit contact) or via service by a third party.

- E. Declarations Re: Custody/Visitation Issues. In preparing declarations and affidavits in custody and visitation matters, exercise discretion as to the extent of detail where sensitive or inflammatory facts are alleged. - F. Income and Expense Declaration. If financial relief is requested, an Income and Expense Declaration in compliance with, and as required by Local Rule 5.11(B) must be filed and served by each party with the moving pleadings. Additionally, copies of all papers filed with the court shall be timely served on the local child support agency.
- G. Declarations in lieu of testimony. Parties have a right to present live testimony absent an agreement of the parties or a finding by the Court of good cause to preclude live testimony. - H. Hearing length. Hearings on the Family Law short cause calendar are limited to fifteen (15) minutes and are subject to further time limitations to accommodate the court's calendar. In the event either party believes in good faith the matter cannot be completed in fifteen (15) minutes, they must inform the Court at the time the matter is first called. The Court may then set the matter on its long cause calendar, or make such other order as may be appropriate under the circumstances.
- I. Contempt proceedings; compliance with Family Code Section 3028.

1. The moving party must attach a copy of the order allegedly violated to the FL-410 Order to Show Cause and Affidavit for Contempt.

In all Title IV-D cases, the Department of Child Support Services shall file a copy of the administratively issued order/notice to withhold income whenever a hearing concerning the order/notice to withhold income for child support is requested. (Family Code Section 5246(g).)
- L. Continuances of Law and Motion Hearings. The following rules govern continuances:
1. Requests for continuances are ordinarily denied, unless good cause is shown. A continuance of a law and motion hearing shall be requested on either of the appropriate following forms:

Otherwise, an appearance for the re-issuance will be required on the scheduled hearing date.

Moving and responsive pleadings must be filed with the court clerk and served upon the opposing party or if represented by an attorney, upon their attorney unless Family Code Section 215 applies. Parties must comply with the time requirements of Code of Civil Procedure Section 1005(b). The Court, in its discretion, may refuse to consider papers not timely filed or served.
- O. Limited Representation. In the event a party is represented by an attorney and the party's agreement with their attorney is one of limited representation, the party and attorney shall promptly file a FL-950 Notice of Limited Scope Representation. RULE 5.05 CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION

All proceedings relating to the custody or visitation of children are governed by the following rules. As used in this chapter, the term "evaluation" includes both partial and full evaluations, and is synonymous with “investigation.” The term “assessment” refers to a limited inquiry by Family Court Services (referred hereafter in these rules as FCS) pursuant to Family Code Section 3180.

As authorized by Family Code section 3183, the mediation process with FCS in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Nevada shall be referred to as Child Custody Recommending Counseling (hereinafter referred to as CCRC). The CCRC process with Family Court Services is not confidential. The CCRC is conducted by a Child Custody Recommending Counselor (hereinafter referred to as “Counselor”).

- A. Who conducts CCRC, investigations and evaluations. FCS performs CCRC and Section 3180 interviews of a minor when ordered by the court. Generally, FCS does not perform interviews with a minor unless ordered by the court. A qualified private provider shall perform any custody evaluation.
- B. Good faith support of the FCS process is mandated. The parties and their attorneys, if any, must make a good faith effort to support the FCS process. FCS conducts a mandatory and valuable process designed to reduce parental conflict and focus the parents’ attention on the child(ren)’s best interests. The purposes of the FCS process are the following:
 - 1. To reduce acrimony that may exist between the parties and to remove the weight of conflict from the child(ren).
 - 2. To develop an agreement assuring the child(ren) close and continuing contact with both parents when such is in the best interest of the child(ren).
 - 3. To assist parents in agreeing on a parenting plan that is in the best interest of the child(ren), that allows the child(ren) to benefit from the love and care of each parent, and that helps the child(ren) to be stable, secure, happy and healthy.
- C. Ex parte communication. Except as permitted by Family Code Section 216, there shall be no ex parte communication between the attorneys for any party to an action, including minor’s counsel, and any court-appointed or court-connected evaluator or counselor.

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 5.05.1 CCRC

- A. CCRC required by Family Code Section 3175. At the time of filing a Request for Order seeking custody or visitation orders, the Court will order the parties to attend CCRC. The CCRC date and any requirement for CCRC orientation shall be plainly stated on the face of the order.
- B. Appearances. CCRC shall be conducted remotely until further order of the court. However, the Court, in its discretion, may order the parties to participate in person if circumstances warrant. Parties shall provide email addresses to the court at least five court days prior to the CCRC date so that video conference invitations can be sent to the parties.

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 5.05.2 (REPEALED)

(Repealed July 1, 2017.)

RULE 5.05.3 CCRC ORIENTATION

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 5.05.4 CHANGE OF CUSTODY COUNSELORS; GENERAL PROBLEMS RELATING TO CCRC

A counselor may disqualify themselves from a case for good cause. A party does not have the right to disqualify a counselor. A party may request a different counselor by written request to FCS, stating the reason(s) for the request. Copies of the request must be delivered immediately to the counselor and all other parties and attorneys, if any. Requests based solely on disagreement with the counselor's recommendations will not be granted.

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 5.05.5 CONDUCT OF CCRC

- A. CCRC. Attorneys do not attend CCRC unless specifically requested to do so by the CCRC. At the request of a party or attorney, the counselor may be subject to cross-examination on subpoena.
- B. Domestic violence cases. In all cases in which domestic violence is alleged and the parties are involved in the FCS process, the parties are entitled to separate counseling sessions, and, whether or not either parent has requested a separate meeting, some time will be spent by FCS with each parent separately, early in the interviewing process, in order to assess this issue in accordance with Family Code Section 3181 and the Family Court Services' Domestic Violence Protocol. The Domestic Violence Protocol is available from Family Court Services.
- C. Agreement reached. In the event the parties reach an agreement, their agreement will be reduced to writing and submitted to the court. If either party is represented by counsel, the agreement will be submitted to counsel before it is provided to the court for approval and made into a court order. Failure of an attorney to make themselves available for approval shall be deemed a waiver of the right to approve or disapprove; subject to further order of the Court. In the event a CCRC session is held through remote appearance, the parties and any attorneys shall provide an email address through which the exchange and review of the agreement can be completed. The parties and attorneys shall bear the responsibility to check and access their emails regularly to ensure neither the party nor the Court is unduly inconvenienced by any party or attorney's conduct. Unless signed by the parties in the remote meeting, all agreements shall be signed within 24 hours of notice to counsel by e-mail unless an objection is filed with the court within the 24-hour period of time.

- D. Agreement not reached. In the absence of an agreement, the counselor shall make a written status report and recommendation to the Court. However, if no proceedings are pending, no recommendation will be made. If appropriate, the counselor's recommendation may include:
- Restraining orders being issued pending determination of the controversy;
 - A recommendation for a full or partial custody evaluation;
 - Treatment and/or assessment services; and/or
 - Parenting plans including but not limited to supervised versus unsupervised.
- E. CCRC recommendation to Court. If a counselor makes a recommendation to the Court, the parties and their attorneys may confer together with the counselor prior to the hearing or trial on the custody or visitation issue to discuss the counselor's recommendation, and they must make a good faith effort to settle the parenting plan issue by their agreement.
- F. Admission into Evidence. The status report and recommendation of the CCRC counselor are admitted into evidence without the necessity of the Family Court Services author laying the foundation. A party may serve a subpoena, delivered to the clerk's office at least five (5) court days in advance for the counselor to be made available for cross-examination at any contested hearing. Pursuant to Government Code Section 68097.2, the required fee must be tendered to the court with the subpoena.

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 5.05.6 CUSTODY EVALUATIONS

- A. Custody Evaluations.
1. This rule applies to both full and partial evaluations, as defined by California Rules of Court, Rule 5.220.
 2. The Court may appoint an evaluator pursuant to Family Code Section 3111 and/or Family Code Section 3118 and California Rules of Court, Rule 5.220.
 3. All custody evaluations must comply with California Rules of Court, Rule 5.220.
 4. Evaluators must meet the education, experience and training standards set forth in Family Code Section 3110.5 and California Rules of Court, Rules 5.225 and 5.230.

- B. Finding qualified evaluators. FCS shall maintain a list of qualified evaluators, which list must be made available to the public in the offices of FCS, and also in the court clerk's office, the Family Law Facilitator's office, the law library and the court's Self-Help Center. A list may be acquired electronically by contacting the Self-Help Center.
- C. On file maintenance of statement of qualifications. Child custody evaluators that have completed the training in domestic violence required by California Rules of Court, Rule 5.230, in lieu of attaching domestic violence training certificates to their evaluations, may maintain on file with the Family Law Department, Nevada City Branch, a copy of their certificates of completion of the initial twelve (12) hours of advanced in-person classroom instruction and of the most recent annual four (4) hour update training in domestic violence, as well as any other certificates of any subsequently required training.
- D. Confirming qualifications of evaluator. When a child custody evaluator is appointed, whether or not by stipulation, the Court must set the matter for review at the earliest time after expiration of ten (10) days from notice of the appointment, for the purpose of confirming receipt and filing of the evaluator's Judicial Council form Declaration of Child Custody Evaluator Regarding Qualifications (Form FL-326), unless the person appointed is a court-connected employee who is required to annually file such form.
- E. Selection and challenges to evaluator. The parties must select their own qualified evaluator. In the absence of agreement, the Court will provide a list of three (3) or more qualified evaluators for consideration. Each party shall have the option of striking one (1) name from the list. The Court will make the appointment from any remaining names. Thereafter, no further peremptory challenge to a court-appointed evaluator is permitted. This applies to FCS personnel, other county employees, and any mental health professional.
- F. Withdrawal of evaluator. An evaluator may request to withdraw from a case on a showing of good cause. The petition may be in the form of a letter directed to the judge assigned to the case, with a copy served on each party by the Court. If no party objects to the withdrawal within five (5) court days of the evaluator's request, the Court may decide the issue on the written request. Objections to the evaluator's request may also be in letter form. If an objection is received by the court, the Court may either decide the matter on the request and objections, or set the issue for hearing at the earliest date permitting at least ten (10) days' notice.
- G. Disclosure of lack of confidentiality. The lack of confidentiality of the evaluation process need not be disclosed to a child by the evaluator, but may be disclosed if the evaluator deems it appropriate. The evaluator should, but is not required to, see each parent with the child(ren). Interviews with the siblings should, but are not required to, be separate. The evaluator should make every reasonable effort to interview each parent. All parties, or their respective attorneys, shall be sent a copy of the report. Access to the evaluator's report is granted to the minors (upon their request), the parties, and their attorney. Access to reports by other persons may be granted by the Court upon a showing of good cause consistent with Family Code Section 3111, the applicable Rules of Court and mandatory Judicial Council forms.

7. If fees have been previously waived as to either party, an updated fee waiver application for BOTH parties, or the payment of fees by either party having the ability to do so.
8. A completed proposed FL-180 Judgment (Family Law) conforming to Paragraph D of this Local Rule 5.06. Notwithstanding the language on FL-182 Judgment Checklist that 5 copies of the Judgment are required, now that the court uses electronic files, only the original and one copy are needed.
9. A completed FL-190 Notice of Entry of Judgment (Family Law—Uniform Parentage—Custody and Support), together with pre-addressed stamped envelopes to both parties

C. Stipulation for judgment. A stipulation for judgment must comply with California Rules of Court, Rule 5.411.

D. Contents of judgment.

1. The provisions of a judgment must be stated in legal language and not in the language of an agreement or request.
2. The orders and judgment must be consistent with the relief sought in the petition or response, unless the parties otherwise agree in a marital settlement agreement or stipulated judgment.
3. If the parties have agreed to waive service of a Final Declaration of Disclosure, the judgment, or a separate waiver executed by the parties under penalty of perjury, must show compliance with Family Code Section 2105(c).
4. If one of the parties has not paid court fees, the judgment must make provision for the payment of court fees by the opposing party, unless the opposing party has filed their own fee waiver.
5. If there is a marital settlement agreement or stipulation for judgment, it should be attached to the judgment, incorporated by reference and the parties ordered to carry out any executory terms thereof. If the marital settlement agreement is to remain confidential, then it need not be attached; however, all orders for custody, child, spousal or family support (including termination provisions), attorney fees, injunctive orders, restraining orders, etc., shall be set forth in full, either in or as attachments to the judgment.

6. Custody, Visitation or Parenting Provisions

1. As used herein, the term “parenting plan” refers to the provisions of a judgment or order for a child’s or children’s legal and/or physical custody, visitation and related issues.
2. The parties and attorneys are encouraged to include a permanent parenting plan concerning both legal and physical custody, in order to provide for the stability of the minor child(ren).
3. The parenting plan must be set forth in its entirety in the judgment. It cannot be included by reference to a marital settlement agreement, mediated agreement, or prior temporary court order, unless the document is attached to the judgment and the parties ordered to carry out its terms.
4. The parenting plan must comply with Family Code Section 3048, including a warning that violation of the order may result in criminal or civil penalties for the violating party.

7. Support Provisions

- i. Support provisions must be set forth in their entirety in the judgment. They cannot be included by reference to a marital settlement agreement or prior temporary court order, unless the document is attached to the judgment and the parties ordered to carry out its terms.
- ii. Support provisions must include the amount ordered, the commencement date, and for spousal support, the termination date, if any. Child support provisions must include the name and date of birth of each supported child.
- iii. If the parties have agreed on child support and the amount of support deviates from guidelines, the judgment must comply with Family Code Sections 4057 and 4065. If a party requesting support is receiving public assistance, the judgment must include the written consent of the local child support agency and any support order must be made payable to that agency.
- iv. If the judgment provides that a party maintain medical or dental insurance, the manner of reimbursement for uninsured health care expenses shall be as set forth in Family Code Section 4063. Reimbursement amounts are due within thirty (30) days of notice, unless the judgment provides otherwise.
- v. The judgment must have all required attachments, including Judicial Council form FL-192.

8. Stay away, residence exclusion, restraint on personal conduct and property restraint orders will not be granted unless the respondent is given notice in the petition for dissolution (or in an application for domestic violence restraining order) that such relief will be sought, and petitioner has established a factual basis at the time of hearing for granting such orders. However, domestic violence restraining orders otherwise granted pursuant to Family Code Section 6200 et seq., shall remain in full force and effect until the stated expiration date thereon, or as provided by law.

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 5.07 VOLUNTARY SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

- A. Voluntary settlement conference procedure. In order to promote the early disposition of family law actions and to reduce the cost of family law litigation, the court has a voluntary settlement conference procedure. This procedure is separate and distinct from attorney-supervised settlement conferences that are presently conducted by private agreement or court order. This procedure must not be used as a substitute for discovery, settlement discussions between the parties or preparation for a formal settlement conference or trial.
- B. Joint request for voluntary settlement conference. In order to participate in this procedure, the parties must file a joint request for voluntary settlement conference, which shall provide the following information:
 1. If the action is calendared for settlement conference and trial, specify the dates and times for the settlement conference and trial. If the action is not calendared for settlement conference and trial, so state.
 2. Prior to the filing of the joint request, the parties and/or attorneys have met and conferred in a good faith effort to settle the contested issues, and the probability of settling any remaining contested issues is substantial with the assistance of the court in a voluntary settlement conference.
 3. A summary statement of the contested issues and the respective positions of the parties on these contested issues
- C. Setting of conference. After the joint request is filed, the conference will be placed on the court's next date available to the court and the attorneys or self-represented parties.
- D. Attendance. The parties and their attorneys must attend the voluntary settlement conference, unless an appearance is excused by the Court prior to the conference.
- E. Sanctions. If a party elects to participate in this voluntary procedure and fails to comply with these provisions, the Court may impose appropriate sanctions in accordance with Local Rule 5.07(D).

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 5.08 TRIALS AND MANDATORY SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

- A. Purpose of rules; duties of attorneys and self-represented parties. The purpose of this rule is to ensure that contested family law matters are thoroughly prepared and expeditiously tried. Attorneys, vested with full authority from their clients to dispose of these matters, and self-represented parties must confer in good faith to review the pretrial statements required by these rules no later than one (1) week prior to the time set for any settlement conference and/or trial issues can be resolved by stipulation, and those issues remaining for determination by the Court can be clearly delineated.
- B. Relief from rules. Relief from the operation of these rules relating to contested trials may be given in appropriate cases but only on motion and for good cause shown. Either side may move to strike the at issue memorandum, pretrial statement/request for admissions, or reply pretrial statement of the other side upon the ground the document was not prepared and filed in good faith but, rather, as a means to avoid the operation of these rules. Sanctions against the offending party and/or attorney may be ordered as permitted by law.
- C. At Issue Memorandum. An at issue memorandum on the court's local form may be filed at any time after the filing of a response to the petition and the filing of FL-141's evidencing the parties have exchanged preliminary declarations of disclosure. For purposes of calendar management, the issues to be determined at trial shall be specified in any available blank space or on an attachment. For purposes of calendar management, the issues to be determined at trial shall be specified in any available blank space or on an attachment.
- D. Case management conference. A case management conference will be set upon the filing of an at issue memorandum. Participation in the case management hearing is mandatory. Remote appearances are permitted in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure Section 367.75 and California Rules of Court, Rule 3.672.
- E. Settlement conference; pretrial meet-and-confer rule.
 - 1. Before a trial occurs, lead trial counsel and parties must appear in person for a mandatory pretrial settlement conference as ordered by the court. The attorneys and the parties must participate, in good faith, in the settlement conference.
 - 2. The attorneys and any self-represented parties must confer before the date of any settlement conference or trial in a reasonable attempt to resolve disputed issues and to exchange all relevant documents. Failure to comply, in good faith, with this rule may result in an order dropping the matter from calendar or the imposition of sanctions by the judge.
 - 3. The Court, on its own motion, or upon the motion of either party, may refer the matter for an attorney-supervised settlement conference. Attorney-supervised settlement conferences shall be conducted with the presence of all parties and counsel, shall adhere to the meet and confer principles set forth in Local Rule 5.09(B), shall be preceded by the exchange of all information required in Local Rules 5.08(G) and 5.09 and shall be in compliance with the Court's order. On request of the Court, the attorney settlement supervisor may submit a sealed report to the court concerning the settlement conference and any final offers for settlement. This report shall only be opened following trial if there is a request for Family Code section 271 sanctions/fees. The Court reserves the right to allocate between the parties the payment of any such reasonable fees and costs for preparation of the report.

4. The Court may, at its discretion and for good cause, allow a party or counsel to appear by remote appearance for any settlement conference. The Court, on its own motion, or upon the motion of either party, may refer the matter for an attorney-supervised settlement conference. Attorney-supervised settlement conferences shall be conducted with the presence of all parties and counsel, shall adhere to the meet and confer principles set forth in Local Rule 5.09(B), shall be preceded by the exchange of all information required in Local Rules 5.08(G) and 5.09 and otherwise shall be in compliance with the Court's order and all written Family Law Department policies pertaining to the same. The attorney settlement supervisor, on request of the Court, may submit a sealed report to the court concerning the settlement conference and any final offers for settlement, which may be opened following trial if there is a request for Family Code section 271 fees. The Court reserves the right to allocate between the parties the payment of any such reasonable fees and costs for preparation of the report.
5. The Court may, at its discretion and for good cause, allow a party or counsel to appear by remote appearance for any settlement conference.

- F. Pretrial Statement. Where a matter is set for a settlement conference or contested trial, either short or long cause, both parties must file and serve a "Pretrial Statement" at least ten (10) court days prior to the trial date or settlement conference whichever first occurs. Failure by both sides to do so may result in a drop from the trial or settlement calendar. Failure by one party will allow the complying party to continue the cause and/or sanctions to be imposed, as permitted by law. Motions for sanctions under this rule will be heard by the judicial officer to whom the case is initially assigned for settlement conference. Where custody and other issues are bifurcated, the party or attorney may elect to file separate pretrial statements as to each bifurcated proceeding. The pretrial statement shall consist of a separately filed current (i.e., information and signature within thirty (30) days of filing) and complete (i.e., all required attachments) Income and Expense Declaration, together with the following pretrial statement information, as may be relevant to the particular issues:

1. Statistical facts. List date of marriage, date of separation, names, dates of birth and ages of children; brief outline of temporary orders for support, custody and visitation, restraining orders with dates, amounts, terms and compliance. List by name, court and case number any other actions, past or pending, between the same parties, including a brief description of the terms of any existing order or judgment. All existing domestic violence restraining orders must be listed and identified in a separate paragraph for that purpose.
2. Separate property/debts. List sufficiently for identification each separate property asset and debt. As to contested separate property, list the date it was acquired, the legal and factual basis upon which it is claimed as separate rather than community property, the current market value, the nature, extent, and terms of payment of any encumbrance against the property, the manner in which title to the property is currently vested, and the record title data.
3. Community property/debts. List sufficiently for identification all assets and obligations of the community, the current market value of assets, the manner in which title to the property is currently vested, the nature, extent, and terms of payment of any secured or unsecured debt. Attach a spreadsheet showing the proposed division of the community assets and debts.
4. Contested Mixed Community and Separate Property. Include the separate portion in the listed separate property and the community portion in the listed community property. As to each mixed asset, set forth the factual and legal basis for the apportionment between community and separate interests. Separate and community property tracing must set forth in detail, with dates, values, and dollar amounts, the transactions relevant to the tracing issue, as well as the basis for computation or proration, and must meet either of the two approved methods recognized by California law—direct method or family expense method.
5. Funds held by others. To the extent that either separate property or community property consists of funds held by others, such as insurance policies, pensions, profit sharing, or other trust or retirement funds, the statement must fully identify the policy or fund, including policy number, the present values and basis for calculations, and all terms or conditions, imposed upon withdrawal of such funds. If any loans exist against any of these funds, the details regarding those loans should be set forth.
6. Miscellaneous debits and credits. List sufficiently for identification any claims for reimbursement of community or separate property, including, but not limited to, Watts, Epstein, Family Code Section 2640, rental, use, or monies owing to or from the community or the parties.

7. Child custody, child support and spousal support. Specify each party's contentions as to child custody and a parenting plan schedule and as to amount and duration of child and spousal support.
 - i. For child support issues, the parties must attach a proposed support calculation prepared by a support calculation program approved by the Judicial Council, or, in the case of child support being enforced by DCSS, utilizing a calculator approved by the Judicial Council.
 - ii. For spousal support issues, set forth each Family Code section 4320 factor as it relates to the requested relief.
 - iii. If a party contends income should be imputed to the opposing party, they must set forth the legal and factual basis for imputing income.
 - iv. If a parenting recommendation has been made pursuant to CCRC or a child custody evaluation, each party must address what portion of the recommendation is acceptable and what portion is not taking care not to violate the confidentiality of any custody evaluation report
8. Appraisals, evaluations and evidentiary documents. Appraisals, evaluations, and evidentiary documents must not be attached to the Pretrial Statement; however, each party must serve with the Pretrial Statement on the opposing party a copy of any appraisal or evaluation to be used at trial. Before appraisals of real or personal properties or businesses are obtained, the parties are to meet and confer in an effort to agree upon a joint appraisal.
9. Attorney fees and costs. Any request for attorney's fees and costs should be supported by a brief description of the basis for the request, including an itemization of services rendered. A discussion of sanction-based fees, if requested, shall not include a discussion of settlement negotiations. A later opportunity will be provided, if necessary, for that purpose.
10. A memorandum of points and authorities should be included with respect to any extraordinary or atypical legal issues. Such a memorandum is unnecessary with respect to ordinary issues (i.e., general authority to award spousal support, attorney fees, etc.).
11. To the extent not set forth above, discuss any other issue to be determined by the Court.

COMMENT: Because of the generalized nature of family law pleadings, the pretrial statement identifies for the Court the issues for trial. With the exception of marital status, if neither party identifies an issue in the pretrial statement, that issue will not be a trial issue and hence will not be decided by the Court.

G. Trial and Trial Preparation.

1. Attorneys and the parties shall fully comply with all pretrial orders.
2. Final Declaration of Disclosure. Each party must serve a Final Declaration of Disclosure not later than forty-five (45) days prior to trial and file with the court a Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of Disclosure. Each party must include all attachments required in the completion of the form. The Final Declaration must be updated prior to trial as necessary.
3. At least five (5) court days prior to trial, the attorneys and parties shall meet and confer in a good faith effort to resolve each of the disputed issues, including but not limited to the following:
 - i. They must discuss their contentions and the specific evidence they intend to produce at trial concerning each issue.
 - ii. They must exchange any appraisals, evaluations or other documents they intend to use at trial.
 - iii. They must jointly mark for identification and receipt into evidence any documents that are to be admitted by stipulation. Documents not relevant or that are unduly burdensome will not be admitted into evidence solely because the parties agree to do so.
 - iv. As to any document for which there is no stipulation, the parties must prepare a joint statement identifying the document and stating the objection.
 - v. Any document that purports to summarize voluminous information that is otherwise admissible must be exchanged with the supporting information such that the opposing party may verify the accuracy of the summary in advance of trial.
 - vi. The parties must discuss possible stipulations on issues and/or evidentiary matters, including foundation and hearsay issues. Any stipulation must be reduced to writing and submitted to the court at the commencement of trial.
4. Each party must submit to the court clerk at least two (2) court days prior to the commencement of trial and in editable electronic form, any proposed property division involving more than ten (10) items. The format provided shall include a formula that determines any equalizing payment.
5. In cases where a party's non-stipulated exhibits are more than ten (10) in number (excluding stipulated exhibits), the non-stipulated exhibits must be pre-marked for identification, and indexed. In addition to the original document, the proffering party must have a copy for each other party and for the trial judge.
6. Exhibits requiring special handling by the clerk (i.e., physically large exhibits, voluminous exhibits) should be avoided where reasonably practicable, and reasonable alternatives, including summaries, should be considered. The Court will evaluate the admission of proffered large or voluminous exhibits in light of Evidence Code section 352.

7. All parties, counsel and witnesses shall appear at trial in person unless the Court has granted an advance request for remote appearance. Failure of a party or attorney to be present and ready to proceed at the time of trial may result in the court ordering sanctions and/or proceeding in their absence.
8. Unless a party specifically requests to make an opening statement, the Pretrial Statement will serve as such.
9. If a party is requesting sanction-based fees, at the commencement of trial, both parties shall submit to the clerk, in a sealed envelope, that party's final settlement offer and any response thereto.

H. Preparation and submission of judgments.

1. Preparation and submission of judgments and orders. After a trial or hearing, the party directed by the Court must prepare the judgment or order in accordance with the Court's decision within thirty (30) days and submit it to the opposing attorney/party under the legend "Approved as conforming to the Court's order". The proposed judgment or order must comply with Local Rule 5.06(D). If not approved by the opposing attorney or party, the preparing party must submit it to the court with a cover letter explaining why it is submitted without such approval and showing that a copy of the letter has been sent to opposing attorney/party. The parties shall meet and confer in a good faith effort to resolve disputes over language of the judgment and order prior to submitting these disputes to the court.
2. Identification of party. Every judgment or order must state in the upper left-hand corner the name and address of the person who is presenting the judgment or order to the court for signature.
3. Signature in family law actions. The original and one (1) copy of the judgment must be presented to the court clerk, for presentation to the Family Law Department for signature by the appropriate judicial officer, together with:
 - i. The clerk's file;
 - ii. An original and one (1) copy of a Notice of Entry of Judgment (form FL-190); and
 - iii. A postage-paid envelope addressed to each party.

- I. Updated fee waiver application. An updated application for fee waiver must be submitted with the proposed judgment if filing fees have not been paid by one or both of the parties. In addition, the Court may review waivers of court fees and require a party to file a current Income and Expense Declarations or application for waiver of additional court fees under the following circumstances:

1. Filing of motions for modification of child or spousal support;
2. Requests for the entry of any order or judgment that awards money or property or allocates debts to any party; or
3. At any other time, the Court deems appropriate.

J. The Court may require the payment of previously waived fees as appropriate.

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 5.09 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS; SANCTIONS

A. Courtesies. Courtesy is required of attorneys and the parties, both to the Court and to opposing parties and attorneys. Courtesy to court staff (including FCS staff) and all witnesses is also required. Courtesy is required at all court proceedings and during all discussions and communications in preparation for court proceedings. Courtesy to court staff includes a requirement that substantial efforts be made to see that all matters are appropriately handled within normal court hours. Courtesy to the court and other litigants requires that the fact, or reasonable anticipation, of a resolution or request for continuance be communicated to the court promptly so that court time may be scheduled accordingly.

B. Meet and Confer.

1. Meeting and conferring with the opposing side (attorney or party) is required to be meaningful and not perfunctory. In preparation for a trial or hearing, the parties and/or attorneys must not simply argue positions. Rather, they are required to exchange and inspect relevant documents and information in order that issues may be resolved or facts agreed to by stipulation, and those issues remaining for determination by the Court may be clearly delineated and expeditiously presented to the Court at the time of hearing. Documents and information not exchanged prior to the hearing may not be received in evidence in the Court's discretion.
2. For evidentiary hearings and trials, the parties and attorneys must comply with the relevant provisions of Local Rule 5.08(H).
3. At the hearing, the attorneys and/or parties must advise the Court what issues have been settled by agreement and what issues remain contested. Failure to comply with the meet and confer rule in good faith may result in dropping the matter from the calendar or imposition of sanctions against the offending person(s).
4. The inability of attorneys to be compatible or communicate effectively is not an excuse for failure to comply with the meet and confer requirements. The professional obligation of attorneys to meet and confer in an effort to resolve disputes is an obligation owed to clients, the court, witnesses, children, other litigants and the entire judicial system.

5. Where both parties are self-represented, and where one or both of the parties are subject to a domestic violence restraining order, it is not the intent of this rule to in any way negate or modify the restraining order. In those cases, the meet and confer requirements are specifically subject to and limited by any such applicable restraining orders.
- C. Court Reporters. Court reporters are available, with or without fee, as set forth in Chapter 10 of these rules.
- D. Sanctions. In addition to any other sanctions available under the law, a party or an attorney not complying with these family law rules may be subject to sanctions for non-compliance under Code of Civil Procedure Section 177.5 and 575.2 and Local Rule 5.14.
- E. Remote Appearances. Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 5.324, remote appearances are permitted in title IV-D hearings and conferences. The procedures set forth in Code of Civil Procedure Section 367.75 and California Rules of Court, Rule 3.672 apply.

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 5.09.1 FAMILY CENTERED CASE RESOLUTION (“FCCR”) CONFERENCE

Upon the filing of a petition for dissolution, legal separation, nullity, or parentage the Court will issue a Notice of FCCR Conference and calendar the conference 180 days after the filing of the petition. The petitioner shall serve the Notice of FCCR Conference on the respondent with the summons and petition and any other initial papers to be served with the summons and petition or as required by law or California Rules of Court.

A FCCR Conference shall continue to be calendared at reasonable intervals until a judgment on all issues has been filed.

- A. Purpose. The purpose of the FCCR Conference is to evaluate the case, review the status of temporary orders and discovery, identify issues that need to be resolved, and implement a plan for case resolution. At the FCCR Conference, the Court may:
 - Provide early neutral case evaluation;
 - Suggest Alternative Dispute Resolution;
 - Bifurcate issues and set these issues for trial;
 - Make special referrals such as co-parent counseling;
 - Order completion of Declarations of Disclosure if they have not been timely exchanged;

- Limit, schedule or expedite discovery, including disclosure of expert witnesses;
 - Appoint joint experts upon stipulation of the parties and order allocation of payment for experts;
 - File stipulations the parties reach on temporary issues or that narrow the other issues;
 - Schedule a hearing on issues that are critical to the progress of the case; for example, appointment of minor's counsel, appointment of experts;
 - Order a Settlement Conference;
 - Set the case on a dismissal calendar for failure to serve (Code of Civil Procedure Section 583.210) or failure to adjudicate (Code of Civil Procedure Section 583.310); unless Code of Civil Procedure Section 583.161 applies;
 - Review other case management options under Family Code Section 2451 with counsel, their clients and self-represented parties;
 - Take such other actions and make orders regarding case flow management which would tend to promote a just and efficient disposition of the case.
- B. Status and FCCR Conference Questionnaire (FL-20). At least ten (10) calendar days prior to the Case Resolution Conference, each party shall file with the court and serve on the other party a status and FCCR Conference Questionnaire (FL-20). Failure to file and serve the Status and FCCR Conference Questionnaire may result in sanctions. If a party has submitted a request to reset and it has been denied the Court shall set a date for submission of the Status and FCCR Conference Questionnaire in the order denying the reset.
- C. Appearances. Self-represented parties and attorneys of record must appear either in person or remotely at all FCCR Conferences unless excused by the court. The Court, at its discretion and where allowable by law, may require appearances to be made remotely. Represented parties do not need to appear if their attorney of record appears, unless the party received notice from the other party that their appearance is required. Notice of a request for appearance shall be served ten (10) days prior to the FCCR Conference. Notice shall be given by serving form FL-20 and checking the applicable box. If the Department of Child Support Services is a party to the action, their appearance is not required unless requested by the court. Failure to appear at the FCCR Conference may result in sanctions.
- D. Requests to Reset/Advance/Set FCCR Conference. The parties or their attorneys, if any, may request to reset/advance/set of the FCCR Conference by submitting to the court a proposed stipulation signed by the parties or their attorneys, if any, with a proposed order thereon, at least five (5) calendar days prior to the FCCR Conference.

The parties or their attorneys, if any, may not stipulate to a reset/advance/set of the FCCR Conference without order of the court. If the case is progressing to the satisfaction of the court, these requests will be granted.

- E. Dismissal of Action. If parties fail to appear twice at their respective FCCR Conference or if there is no proof of service of Summons and Petition on file, the case may be set on the Dismissal calendar, pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 5.83.
- F. Drops from the FCCR Conference Calendar. A case may be dropped from the FCCR Calendar if the parties fail to appear at three (3) such calendars.

(Amended July 1, 2024.)

RULE 5.10 COURT FACILITATOR; ADDITIONAL DUTIES

- A. As required by the Family Law Facilitator Act, Family Code Sections 10000 to 10012, this Court maintains an office of the Family Law Facilitator. Pursuant to Family Code Section 10005, this Court designates the following additional duties of the Family Law Facilitator if staff and other resources are available and the duties listed in Family Code Section 10004 have been accomplished. The additional duties of the Family Law Facilitator may include the following:
 - 1. Meeting with parties to mediate issues of child support, spousal support, and maintenance of health insurance, subject to Section 10012. Actions in which one or both of the parties are self-represented must have priority. Drafting stipulations to include all issues to which the parties have agreed, including issues other than those specified in Section 10003.
 - 2. Drafting stipulations to include all issues to which the parties have agreed, including issues other than those specified in Section 10003.
 - 3. If the parties are unable to resolve issues with the assistance of the Family Law Facilitator, prior to or at the hearing, and at the request of the Court, the Family Law Facilitator shall review the paperwork, examine documents, prepare support schedules, and advise the judge whether or not the matter is ready to proceed.
 - 4. Preparing formal orders consistent with the Court's announced order in cases where both parties are self-represented.
 - 5. Serving as a special master in proceedings and making findings to the court unless the Family Law Facilitator has served as a mediator in that case.
 - 6. Providing the services specified in Section 10004 concerning the issues of child custody and visitation as they relate to calculating child support, if funding is provided for that purpose.

7. Assisting the court with research and any other responsibilities which will enable the court to be responsive to the litigants' needs.
8. Developing programs for bar and community outreach through day and evening programs, videotapes, and other innovative means that will assist unrepresented and financially disadvantaged litigants in gaining meaningful access to the family court. These programs must specifically include information concerning underutilized legislation, such as expedited child support orders and preexisting, court-sponsored programs, such as supervised visitation and appointment of minor's counsel.

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 5.11 USE OF FORMS

- A. Judicial Council Forms. When the Judicial Council has adopted mandatory forms for use in a proceeding, their use is mandatory. Any document not submitted on a mandatory form will be returned to the party submitting it, except when the Judicial Council has added or modified a mandatory form, in which case the Court may allow a grace period following the effective date of the form to allow incorporation of the new forms into commercial forms programs. It shall be the responsibility of the attorneys and the parties to determine, prior to submitting a paper for filing, if a grace period applies.
- B. Income and Expense Declarations.
 1. A current and complete Income and Expense Declaration is required for any trial or hearing in which the financial circumstances of one or more of the parties is relevant. If a party is requesting any financial relief or reimbursement, a current and complete Income and Expense Declaration is required.
 2. An Income and Expense Declaration is current if it is less than three (3) months between the filing date and the time of hearing, AND there have been no material changes since the date of filing. An Income and Expense Declaration that is more than three (3) months old MAY be considered current if the party files a declaration showing there has been no change of circumstances since the last filing.
 3. An Income and Expense Declaration is complete if all blanks are filled in and all required attachments are attached. Required attachments include, but are not limited to, (i) wage stubs showing year-to-date earnings (or last three (3) pay stubs) for all employment and (ii) a cash flow statement for all self-employment and investment income showing cash received and cash expended.

4. That portion of the Income and Expense Declaration that relates to cash and assets on hand must be fully completed if the relief at issue is permanent spousal support, attorney fees, payment of costs, payment of community obligations, or where it is otherwise relevant. Inserting “unknown” or “TBD” or a similar response is non-compliance with this section. Rather, answers should reflect assets then in the possession of or under the control of the declarant.
 5. Income tax returns shall not be attached or filed, except on court order, but the last three (3) year’s state and federal tax returns (either individual or joint) must be produced at the hearing or trial by the party in possession of the same, or any copy. Copies of the returns must be exchanged at least five (5) days prior to the court appearance.
 6. If a party is on public assistance, or an application for public assistance is pending, that fact must be disclosed on that party’s Income and Expense Declaration.
- C. Schedule of Assets and Debts. A Schedule of Assets and Debts (Form FL-142) shall include all attachments required by that form. It is not compliance with this rule to simply list assets in cases in which attachments are required.
- D. Local Forms. Local family law forms are reproduced in the Appendix I to these rules. Except where otherwise noted in these rules, the use of these forms is suggested, but not mandatory.

(Amended July 1, 2014.)

RULE 5.12 (REPEALED)

(Repealed January 1, 2006.)

RULE 5.13 DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ORDERS AND COORDINATION

Whenever application is made for a protective order or a custody/visitation order under circumstances in which domestic violence is alleged, the parties and court will adhere to the procedures set forth in Chapter 11 (Domestic Violence Coordination Rules).

(Effective January 1, 2004.)

In any paternity proceeding arising under this rule the Court shall inform the mother and the person claiming to be father of their right to be separately represented by counsel on the issue of paternity. The Court shall advise the person claiming to be father of his legal responsibilities should he be found to be the natural father of the minor, including the obligation to pay child support and the possibility he may be incarcerated if he willfully fails to pay child support after being legally ordered to do so.

(Effective January 1, 1997.)

RULE 6.03.5 EVIDENCE OF TESTIMONY

The Court shall permit such evidence to be taken as necessary to determine the paternity of the minor. Testimony from the mother and the person claiming to be the natural father may be sufficient to make a paternity finding. If the mother or the person claiming to be the father is absent from the court proceeding, evidence in addition to testimony from those in attendance will normally be necessary to enable the Court to make a paternity finding.

(Effective January 1, 1997.)

RULE 6.03.6 SCIENTIFIC TESTING

The Court may order genetic testing if it believes such tests will assist in making a paternity finding. The Court shall determine which party or parties shall pay for any such test.

(Amended July 1, 2003.)

Any paternity finding shall be noted in the clerk's minutes and shall be available upon request to any person or agency having a need to know.

(Effective January 1, 1997.)

RULE 6.04.3 FORMAL DISCOVERY

- A. Formal discovery. Only after all informal means have been exhausted may a party petition the court for discovery. Any noticed motion shall state the relevancy and materiality of the information sought and the reasons why informal discovery was not adequate to secure that information. The motion shall be served on all parties at least five (5) court days before the hearing date. The date for the hearing shall be obtained from the county clerk. A copy shall be served on the court before which the matter is scheduled to be heard.

Any responsive papers shall be filed and served two (2) court days prior to the hearing.
- B. Civil discovery. In order to coordinate the logistics of discovery in dependency cases, there shall be no depositions, interrogatories, subpoenas of juvenile records or other similar types of civil discovery without approval of a judge of the juvenile court upon noticed motion. For non-dependency cases, see Section 6.07.1 regarding the standing order on confidentiality of juvenile records.
- C. Case records and reports (California Rules of Court, Rule 5.546). In contested proceedings, the social worker's narratives and other relevant case records shall be made available to counsel as provided by California Rules of Court, Rule 5.546 and applicable law, at least ten (10) calendar days before the hearing and any updated records two (2) calendar days before the hearing. In all other cases, such documents shall be made available at least two (2) calendar days prior to the hearing.

- C. All other reports shall be due a reasonable number of days before the hearing but in no event less than 48 hours before.

If the social study report is not timely filed or made available to all counsel, then any affected party or the Court may request a continuance of the hearing to the extent permitted by law.

The names of any experts to be called by any party and copies of their reports, if not part of a social study report prepared by Child Protective Services, shall be provided to all counsel at least ten (10) days before the hearing, unless a shorter time is ordered by the Court.

Reports prepared by any CASA advocate shall be filed with the court and made available to all counsel a reasonable number of days before the hearing, but in no event less two (2) court days before.

RULE 6.04.6 REQUESTS FOR TRANSCRIPTS

Any party wanting the Court to pay for a reporter's transcript shall apply in writing to the judicial officer who heard the matter in question or to the Presiding Judge. Alternatively, a party may orally request at a court hearing that the Court order a transcript be prepared at Court expense. Any request for a transcript at court expense, whether made in writing or orally, must be accompanied by reference to the legal authority providing for the same. A party may order a reporter's transcript prepared at that party's expense without seeking Court authorization.

(Amended July 1, 2024.)

RULE 6.05 MOTIONS AND ORDERS

(Effective January 1, 1997.)

RULE 6.05.1 MOTION TO CHALLENGE LEGAL SUFFICIENCY OF DEPENDENCY PETITION (In re Fred J. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 168; 175-177; Welfare & Institutions Code Section 348)

In any dependency proceeding the Court may entertain a pre-hearing challenge to the petition's sufficiency by a motion to challenge the legal sufficiency of the petition. Such a motion may be made in writing or orally, but must be made as early in the proceedings as possible. The Court may rule on the motion at the hearing at which it is made, or may continue the hearing on the motion to another date in order to receive briefing from counsel. If the Court sustains the motion, the Court may grant leave to amend the pleading in the petition upon any terms as may be just and shall fix the time within which the amendment or amended petition shall be filed.

(Effective January 1, 1997.)

RULE 6.05.2 EX PARTE APPLICATIONS AND ORDERS

Ex parte applications for orders are made to the Court without formal advance notice to the other parties of the application.

There are three types of ex parte applications: Ex parte applications to calendar hearings, routine ex parte applications, and all other ex parte applications.

This rule does not apply to applications for administration of psychotropic medication. For that procedure, see Local Rule 6.07.2.

(Effective January 1, 1997.)

RULE 6.05.3 EX PARTE APPLICATION TO CALENDAR HEARING

- A. Presentation; calendaring; continuance. An ex parte application to calendar a hearing is made by submission of the ex parte application to calendar and order form to the judge or referee in whose courtroom the case is assigned. An ex parte application to calendar a hearing shall not be made to a judge or referee other than the judge or referee in whose courtroom the proposed hearing is to be held, or for other good cause.
 1. If the ex parte application to calendar form is being used to place on calendar a hearing which does not already have a hearing date, advance notice to all other counsel of the intent to submit an ex parte application to calendar and order form to a judge or referee in whose courtroom the case is assigned is not required if the proposed date of hearing is more than seven (7) calendar days from the date of submission of the form. Any party choosing to proceed thus must give all other counsel seven (7) calendar days written notice of the hearing date which has been approved by the judge or referee. If the proposed date of hearing is less than seven (7) calendar days from the date of submission of the ex parte application to calendar and order form, consent to the proposed hearing date must be sought from the other counsel. Consent of counsel can be reflected by that counsel or party initialing the appropriate box on the ex parte application to calendar and order form.

An ex parte application to calendar and order form seeking a hearing date less than seven (7) calendar days from the date of submission of the form may be submitted to the judge or referee even if written consent to the proposed hearing date has been withheld by other counsel, so long as said counsel was given an opportunity to give written consent to the proposed hearing date. The party submitting the ex parte application to calendar and order form shall memorialize on the form the counsel's refusal to give written consent to the proposed hearing date.

2. If the ex parte application to calendar form is being used to obtain a continuance of a hearing date which is already on calendar, the ex parte application to calendar form, which shall adequately specify the reason the continuance is sought and the length of the continuance being sought, shall first be presented to all counsel. If any counsel objects to the proposed continuance, or requests a hearing on the request for a continuance, that counsel should so specify on the ex parte application to calendar form. Once the ex parte application to calendar form has been initialed by all counsel, the form shall be presented to the judge or referee in whose courtroom the hearing is currently scheduled for consideration. When presented with an ex parte application to calendar form requesting a continuance, the judge or referee shall do one of the following:
 - i. Grant the request for a continuance and select a new hearing date,
 - ii. Deny the request for a continuance, or
 - iii. Set the request for a continuance for hearing and select a date for that hearing.

When the party submitting the completed ex parte application to calendar form receives that form back from the judge or referee, that party shall file the form with the clerk's office and serve copies of the filed form on all counsel and the Child Protective Services case manager.

- B. Different motion. If a case has an upcoming hearing date already on calendar, an ex parte application to calendar and order form need not be submitted to place on calendar for the same date a separate/different motion on the same case. However, the party seeking to place the separate/different motion on calendar must give ten (10) calendar days written notice of the separate/different motion to all other counsel, unless the Court, for good cause shown, prescribes a lesser number of days for notice.
- C. Not substitute for motion. The ex parte application to calendar and order form has no purpose other than to place, change, or continue a hearing date on the Court's calendar. The ex parte application to calendar and order form is not a substitute for a Welfare & Institutions Code Section 388 petition, a formal written motion, or supporting points and authorities.

(Effective January 1, 1997.)

RULE 6.05.4 ROUTINE EX PARTE APPLICATIONS

Unless counsel for a party has specifically requested advance notice of ex parte applications regarding out-of-state travel or medical/dental care for the minor, an ex parte application may be made, without advance formal notice, to the judge or referee in whose courtroom the minor's case is assigned, seeking an order permitting minor to travel out-of-state with the foster parent or care provider, relative, or other appropriate adult acceptable to Child Protective Services, or an order authorizing that medical or dental care be performed on the minor. Any such ex parte applications shall be filed no less than fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the proposed travel or medical/dental care absent good cause shown on the application, or unless the Court has specified a greater or lesser period. All such ex parte applications shall include the following information:

- A. Name and address. The name and address of each party to the action, and the name and address of each party's counsel;
- B. Effort to obtain consent. The efforts made to obtain the consent of and/or give notice to the parents or guardians of the minor of the proposed travel or medical/dental care;
- C. Refusal noted. If a parent or guardian has refused to agree to the proposed travel or to give consent to medical/dental care, that fact shall be noted on the application, including the ground for the parent/guardian's refusal, if known;
- D. Efforts to locate. For any parent or guardian whom Child Protective Services was unable to locate to give notice and/or obtain consent, a description of the efforts made to locate the parent/guardian; the fact the minor's counsel has been notified of the proposed travel or medical/dental care, and said counsel's position on the proposed travel or medical/dental.

When presented with an ex parte application for order authorizing out-of-state travel or medical/dental care, the judge or referee shall either grant the request and issue the order or deny the request. If the judge or referee issues the requested order authorizing out-of-state travel or medical/dental care, the party who sought the order shall file the ex parte application form and order with the clerk's office and provide copies of the filed ex parte application and order form with all counsel. Any party disagreeing with the order for out-of-state travel or medical/dental care shall place the matter on calendar for further consideration.

An order nunc pro tunc making corrections, changes or additions to any finding or order generated at a prior hearing may be made by ex parte application where the Court made an order or finding that was mistakenly omitted from the minute order.

(Effective January 1, 1997.)

RULE 6.05.5 NON-ROUTINE EX PARTE APPLICATIONS

All ex parte applications other than those discussed in Local Rules 6.05.3 and 6.05.4 are considered non-routine ex parte applications. All non-routine ex parte applications must be made only upon adequate advance notice to all counsel in accordance with this rule. Non-routine ex parte applications include, but are not limited to, requests for a temporary order modifying a visitation order pending a hearing on a concurrently filed Welfare & Institutions Code Section 388 petition seeking the same relief on a permanent basis.

Non-routine ex parte applications shall be heard at 8:30 a.m. by the judge or referee in whose courtroom the case is assigned.

Before submitting an ex parte application and proposed order forms to the judge or referee in whose courtroom the case is assigned for signature, the applicant shall adhere to the following procedures:

- A. The applicant shall advise the judge or referee in whose courtroom the case is assigned no later than 3:00 p.m. the day prior to the hearing that a non-routine ex parte application will be made the following morning in that judge's or referee's courtroom.
- B. The applicant shall give, no later than 4:00 p.m. on the day prior to the proposed ex parte application, advance notice of the time, place, and basic subject matter of the proposed ex parte application to all counsel and the social worker assigned to the case, except for good cause shown or consent of all counsel.
- C. The notice given to the other counsel regarding the ex parte application for a non-routine order shall be stated on the declaration re notice of ex parte application form attached as Appendix I.

If the applicant has made a good faith attempt to inform the other counsel regarding the ex parte application but was unable to do so, the efforts made to inform them shall be specified on the declaration re notice of ex parte application.

If the applicant contends that advanced notice to one or more other counsel should not be required, the grounds upon which this contention is based shall be specified on the Declaration re Notice of Ex Parte Application form. The completed Declaration re Notice of Ex Parte Application form shall be submitted to the judge or referee with the ex parte application. An ex parte application which is submitted to the judge or referee without the Declaration re Notice of Ex Parte Application form will be summarily denied.

Whenever possible, the ex parte application moving papers and the declaration re notice of ex parte application form, and any responding papers, shall be served on all other counsel as far in advance of the ex parte application as is practicable.

Notice of the ex parte application may be excused if the giving of such notice would frustrate the purpose of the order, or cause the minor to suffer immediate and irreparable physical or emotional harm.

Notice may also be excused if, following a good faith attempt, the giving of notice is not possible, or if the other counsel does not object to the relief sought by the ex parte application.

(Effective January 1, 1997.)

RULE 6.05.6 NOTICED MOTIONS

No noticed motion shall be accepted by the clerk's office unless it is accompanied by a proof of service. A noticed motion must give ten (10) calendar days written notice to all other counsel unless the Court, for good cause shown, prescribes a lesser number of days for notice.

(Effective January 1, 1997.)

RULE 6.05.7 MODIFICATION OF ORDERS (Welfare & Institutions Code Sections 386, 387 and 388; California Rules of Court, Rules 5.560 – 5.570.)

(Amended January 1, 2008.)

RULE 6.05.8 MORE RESTRICTIVE PLACEMENT

Any motion by petitioner to modify an existing order to a more restrictive placement shall be implemented pursuant to Welfare & Institutions Code Section 387 and California Rules of Court, Rules 5.560(c), 5.565. A change in an out-of-home, non-relative placement (i.e., foster care, family foster home, or group home) shall not be deemed a more restrictive placement unless the placement change is from a level 12 or lower placement (as defined by State law) to a higher level which requires a mental health certification. Placement in a level 13 or higher-level home is defined as being more restrictive than a level 1 to level 12 home whether the home is a foster home, a family foster home or a group home.

(Amended January 1, 2008.)

RULE 6.05.9 LESS RESTRICTIVE PLACEMENT

Any motion by an interested party to modify the Court's orders to a less restrictive placement shall follow the procedures outlined in Welfare & Institutions Code Section 388 and California Rules of Court, Rules 5.560(d), 5.570, and these rules.

(Amended January 1, 2008.)

RULE 6.05.10 APPLICATIONS FOR MODIFICATION

Any party seeking an order changing, modifying or setting aside an order previously issued by the juvenile court shall file a petition pursuant to Welfare & Institutions Code Section 388. The petition shall comply with the requirements of Welfare & Institutions Code Section 388 and California Rules of Court, Rule 5.570.

The completed petition for modification and any supporting papers shall be presented to the judge or referee in whose courtroom the minor's case is assigned. The judge or referee shall either grant a hearing on the petition for modification and assign a hearing date, or deny the petition for modification outright.

After the judge or referee signs the petition for modification, the party who presented the petition for modification shall file the petition for modification and any supporting papers with the clerk's office and serve copies of the filed petition for modification and any supporting papers on each party and the party's counsel, if any.

If the judge or referee grants a hearing on the petition for modification and assigns a hearing date, the party who presented the petition for modification shall serve, no less than ten (10) calendar days prior to the assigned hearing date, the filed petition for modification and any supporting papers on each party and the party's counsel, if any. If the petition for modification and any supporting papers are not served on each party or the party's counsel, if any, in compliance with this rule, the hearing date may be taken off calendar.

Any party seeking an order temporarily granting the relief sought in a petition for modification pending the hearing on that petition shall specify in the petition the fact that temporary relief is being sought and the specific nature of the temporary relief sought. Any such request for temporary relief shall be accompanied by evidence demonstrating that the order temporarily granting the relief sought in a petition for modification is in the best interests of the minor. The party seeking an order temporarily granting the relief sought in a petition for modification shall comply with the notice requirements for non-routine ex parte applications set forth in Local Rule 6.05.5.

(Amended January 1, 2008.)

RULE 6.05.11 VISITATION

Visitation between a minor and the minor's parents should be as frequent as possible based on the individual circumstances of the case, considering the needs of the child.

Orders for visitation may be issued at any scheduled hearing. Arrangements for visitation may be modified by the filing and approval of a Welfare & Institutions Code Section 388 petition.

Unless specified otherwise by the Court, the following definitions shall apply to visitation orders:

- Supervised Visits: Child Protective Services is responsible for the supervision of visits unless the court order specifies that a third party may assume that role. Only reasonable visits may be required to be supervised.
- Reasonable Visits: Visits may last up to one (1) day but shall not include overnight.

- Liberal Visits: Visits may include overnight and weekends and up to a maximum of fourteen (14) consecutive days.
- Extended Visits: Visits which last beyond fourteen (14) consecutive days. Pursuant to state regulations, extended visits become placements after sixty (60) consecutive days.

Any significant decrease from the court-ordered level of a parent's/party's level of visitation shall be presented to the affected parent/party for comment before being submitted to the Court. The Court may set a hearing on the issue after hearing the parent's/party's comments on the proposed reduction.

(Effective January 1, 1997.)

RULE 6.05.12 TRAVEL AUTHORIZATION

Unless ordered otherwise by the Court, a minor's care provider, with the concurrence of Child Protective Services and, when possible, notice to the parent, may authorize travel by the minor 1) within the State of California, and 2) if the minor is placed in Eastern Nevada County, to Washoe County and/or Douglas County, Nevada. Any travel that would conflict with any scheduled court date, and any other travel for the minor out of the State of California shall require prior court approval. Any application to the Court for orders regarding travel of the minor shall state what efforts have been made to notify the parent(s) and their response, if any.

(Amended January 1, 2008.)

RULE 6.05.13 APPLICATION TO COMMENCE PROCEEDINGS (Welfare & Institutions Code Sections 329, 331)

In that application, the applicant shall give notice and identifying information of any pending family law proceeding. If a family law proceeding is pending, a copy of the application shall also be sent to Family Court Services by the applicant. Child Protective Services shall respond to the application as soon as possible or within three (3) weeks after submission of the application. If applicable, Child Protective Services shall notify Family Court Services of its response. An ordered suspension shall remain in effect for the period ordered by the Court or until Child Protective Services indicates in writing that it will take no action in the matter, whichever occurs first.
- B. Welfare & Institutions Code Section 300 Petition, Juvenile Court. If a petition pursuant to Welfare & Institutions Code Section 300 is filed in the juvenile court, all custody and visitation proceedings in the Family Court are suspended.

CHAPTER 7

CRIMINAL LAW RULES

RULE 7.00 GENERAL

All counsel and defendants representing themselves in a criminal matter are expected to know and follow these rules as well as all applicable sections of the federal and California Constitutions, California codes and statutes, California Rules of Court, especially rule 10.950, et. seq., and Standards of Judicial Administration. Sanctions similar to Rule 2.30 of the Rules of Court may be imposed for failure to comply with these rules, the Rules of Court or orders of the Court.

These rules are intended to supplement the California Rules of Court and constitutional and Penal Code provisions except where a contrary intent is expressed herein. Rules 10.950-10.953 of the California Rules of Court are adopted herein and shall apply equally to all unified courts, except that the term "readiness conference" as used in the California Rules of Court shall mean "pretrial conference" when used in these local rules. As used in these rules, "readiness conference" means a conference to determine if the case is ready for trial.

Unless ordered otherwise by the trial judge, these criminal court rules apply to all criminal cases in both Sup and Truckee.

(Amended January 1, 2008.)

RULE 7.01 EARLY CASE DISPOSITION (FELONY OR PRE-TRIAL) CONFERENCES

- A. Pursuant to the guidelines set forth in People v. West (1970) 3 Cal.3d 595 at pages 604-605, negotiation of criminal cases at the earliest practicable stage of the proceedings furthers a significant social policy and is to be encouraged.
- B. Counsel are strongly encouraged to meet and confer informally in an attempt to resolve cases at the earliest convenient time.
- C. The Court may decline to meet in any formal felony or pretrial conference with parties who have not attempted a resolution beforehand.
- D. Early resolution will be best promoted if parties comply with the discovery statutes as soon as possible following the entry of the initial plea in the case. The prosecutor is strongly encouraged to informally provide all police reports containing the information described in Penal Code section 1054.1(b), (e) and (f) in their possession at least 24 hours prior to the first scheduled felony conference.
- E. The first felony conference with the Court shall occur prior to the preliminary hearing. The first misdemeanor pre-trial conference shall occur on a date set by the Court. Upon a written request, the prosecutor is strongly encouraged to deliver to defense counsel or a defendant proceeding in pro per a formal offer for resolution prior to the conference. Defense counsel shall meet with their client before said conference and be prepared to discuss the offer to other possible disposition with the Court. Counsel appearing at the conference shall have the authority to dispose of the case.

- F. After a defendant is held to answer or an indictment is filed, early disposition shall again be attempted following compliance by all parties with discovery rules. Additional conferences may be set.
 - G. Without Court approval beforehand, no defendant shall be permitted to enter a conditional plea (a plea which in any manner restricts the number of charges admitted and/or the sentencing choices of the Court) to which the prosecutor does not agree unless such plea is entered not later than the trial readiness conference; and except where alternative counts or counts subject to Penal Code Section 654 exist, plea agreements may not be accepted after the trial readiness conference.
- Misdemeanor matters are also subject to these early disposition guidelines where applicable under state law or local rules. A trial readiness conference shall be set prior to trial.

RULE 7.02 PRE-TRIAL MOTIONS EXCEPT CONTINUANCES OR DISCOVERY

- B. In felony and misdemeanor motions involving an evidentiary hearing the moving party must specify on the first page of their notice of motion that an evidentiary hearing is requested and the estimate of time needed. Failure to comply with this rule may result in a denial of the right to present live testimony.
- C. Time limits for motions requesting live testimony are the same as set out in California Rules of Court, Rule 4.111(a).

(Amended January 1, 2008.)

RULE 7.02.1 EX PARTE APPLICATIONS IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

- B. Factual/Legal Showing Required. An applicant must make an affirmative factual and legal showing in a declaration containing competent testimony of the basis for granting relief ex parte.
- C. Notice Required. An ex parte application must be accompanied by a declaration regarding notice stating: (1) The notice given (including the date, time, manner, and name of the party informed), and whether opposition is expected; (2) That the applicant in good faith attempted to inform the opposing party but was unable to do so, specifying the efforts made to inform the opposing party; or (3) That, for reasons specified, the applicant should not be required to inform the opposing party.

A reply brief must not exceed ten (10) pages without authorization of the Court. No other briefs are allowed absent leave of the Court. Any stricter (lesser number of pages allowed) rule set forth in the California Rules of Court shall take precedence over this Local Rule.
- B. Non-compliant memoranda. If a memorandum does not comply with the prescribed length requirements and the party fails to seek authorization from the Court, the reviewing clerk will return it to the party with a notice regarding non-compliance. If a non-compliant memorandum is filed by the clerk in error, the Court may, on its own or a party's motion, with or without notice, do any of the following:
 - 1. Strike all or part of the filing with or without leave to file a new memorandum within a specified time; or
 - 2. Disregard the noncompliance.

Unless otherwise provided for by law, or as may be ordered or authorized by the Court, filings in response to a motion shall be limited to: (1) an opposition and any documents filed in support thereof; and (2) a reply thereto and any documents filed in support thereof.  4. Where the motion is under Penal Code Section 995, a specific identification of the defect argued to be in the Magistrate's order.
- B. A moving party's failure to set forth each and every ground to be relied upon in support of the motion in the memorandum of points and authorities may be construed by the Court as an admission that insufficient facts exist to support said ground and a waiver of the right to assert said ground at the hearing unless the Court, for good cause shown, rules otherwise.

(Amended July 1, 2024.)

RULE 10.00.1 COURT REPORTERS – GENERALLY

Except as otherwise provided in Local Rules 10.00.2, 10.00.3 and 10.00.4 and California Rules of Court, Rules 3.50 – 3.58, court reporters are not available at the expense of the Court unless a party has a valid fee waiver on file and the party requested, in writing, the presence of a court reporter at least five (5) court days in advance of the hearing. (Amended January 1, 2019.)

RULE 10.00.2 COURT REPORTERS – CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

An official court reporter shall report, at the Court's expense, felony criminal proceedings including, but not limited to, arraignments, pre-trial hearings, trials, sentencings and related matters, juvenile proceedings other than those heard by a juvenile court referee or traffic hearing officer and all proceedings under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Welfare & Institutions Code Sections 5000, et seq.).

(Amended July 1, 2024.)

RULE 10.00.3 COURT REPORTERS – CIVIL AND PROBATE

- A. Court reporters are not available at the expense of the Court for all civil proceedings and hearings, including trials, unless a party has an appropriate fee waiver on file and the party requested, in writing, the presence of a court reporter at least five (5) court days in advance of the hearing. In all other cases, court reporters may be used in such proceedings, but they shall be obtained by and be at the expense of the party requesting a reporter. The party requesting a reporter shall provide written notice to the clerk and all other parties of their request and intent to have a reporter present during any hearing or trial at least five (5) court days before any hearing or trial.
- B. An official court reporter shall report any oral determination of a summary judgement motion or civil jury trials in unlimited jurisdiction cases, whether contested or uncontested, at the expense of one or more of the parties.

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 10.00.4 COURT REPORTERS – FAMILY LAW: TRIALS, HEARINGS
EX PARTE, CASE MANAGEMENT, LAW AND MOTION

- A. Court reporters are not available at the expense of the Court on family law short cause hearings, long cause hearings, trials, ex parte application hearings or case management conferences unless a party has an appropriate fee waiver on file and the party requested, in writing, the presence of a court reporter at least five (5) court days in advance of the hearing. In all other cases, court reporters may be used in such proceedings, but they shall be requested by and be at the expense of the party requesting a reporter. The party requesting a reporter shall provide five (5) court days advance written notice to the clerk and to the other party / parties of their request and intent to have a reporter present during any hearing or trial.
- B. Court reporters are available at the Court's expense for all juvenile proceedings other than those heard by a juvenile court referee or traffic hearing officer and for proceedings to declare a minor free from parental custody.

(Amended July 1, 2026.)

RULE 10.00.5 COURT REPORTERS - OTHER PROCEEDINGS; FEES; DEPOSITS; FORFEITURE; TRAVEL EXPENSES

- A. Other proceedings, when to report. In addition to those court proceedings set out in Local Rules 10.00.2, 10.00.3 and 10.00.4, an official court reporter shall report the following court proceedings whether contested or uncontested:
 - 1. Any Court proceeding ordered by the Court, at the Court's expense;
 - 2. Any other court proceeding when a party requests a court reporter in accordance with subdivision (D).
- B. Payment of fees. Except where the reporter's services are requested by a party pursuant to subdivision (D) of this rule, the reporter's fee for reporting a civil proceeding pursuant to Local Rule 10.00.3(C) and for all transcriptions ordered by the Court shall be paid:
 - 1. In a contested civil proceeding, by the parties in equal amounts.
 - 2. In an uncontested civil proceeding, by the moving party.
- C. Deposit of fees under (B). Except as otherwise directed by the Court for good cause shown, one day's fee shall be, in accordance with subdivision (B), advanced to the reporter or clerk before the commencement of each day's proceedings.
- D. Request for court reporter; deposit of fee. When a party requests a court reporter and the reporter is not required by these rules or by statute to report the court proceeding, such party shall, at least five (5) court days before the date of the proceeding, notify the clerk, in writing, of the request. It shall be that party's responsibility to obtain the services of a court reporter for that court proceeding.

Such party shall advance at that time one day's fee to the reporter or clerk. Thereafter, one day's fee shall be advanced to such reporter or clerk before the commencement of each day's proceedings. Failure by a party to make such written request or advance such fee shall be deemed a withdrawal of the request unless, in the case of a failure to advance a fee, the other party advances such fee. In the event of an actual or implied withdrawal, the Court in its discretion may proceed without a court reporter or, upon such terms as may be just, with a court reporter.

- E. Forfeiture of fee. When a party requests a court reporter pursuant to subdivision (D) and thereafter withdraws the request, the party shall pay one (1) day's fee to the reporter or clerk unless such party notified the clerk at least three (3) court days in advance of the date of trial or hearing that the reporter's services will not be required or the reporter has a similar service to perform at the time.
- F. Travel expenses. Whenever under this rule a party is required to pay or deposit a reporter's fee, the party shall also pay or deposit one (1) day's actual expenses for the reporter's out-of-town travel, including mileage at the rate per mile specified by the Judicial Council.

(Amended July 1, 2017.)

RULE 10.01 USE OF INTERPRETERS

- A. Interpreters may be provided for civil, family law or small claims matters, to the extent that State funding is available.
